

Dresses For The Little Girls

"Just what I've been looking for," is the expression that we hear from almost every mother who brings the little girl here for summer clothes. It's very easy to pick out something that looks nice and impossible to choose anything that won't wear well under the most trying conditions. All the season's latest offerings in stripes, checks and plain material including white.

A Word to "The Storekeeper"

The manufacturer who tries to help you sell his goods after he has induced you to stock up on his line deserves your hearty co-operation.

But it is up to you to decide whether the manufacturer is actually helping you, or whether he only thinks he is.

If he is creating a desire for his product without creating an actual demand on your store for it, his help is of little value to you.

The one big advantage of newspaper advertising is that it creates not only desire, but actual demand. Most other mediums stop at desire.

The best kind of advertising that a manufacturer can do for your benefit is local newspaper advertising. Tell his salesmen so next time they come around.

Show them that you know by experience the value of newspaper advertising, and that you want all the branded goods you handled advertised in a way that will bring customers to your store to ask for them.
